

DANCE WORKS ACADEMY DANCE STUDIO PARENTS' CODE OF ETHICS

The mission of Dance Works Academy is to provide all young dancers exceptional role models in a healthy and encouraging environment and to foster an environment where each child feels accepted, confident and empowered to thrive. I recognize the importance of dance in the lives of young people. I pledge that I will participate in my child's dance activities in accordance with the following rules:

I will promote teamwork, sportsmanship and a competitive spirit for all dancers and spectators in a positive manner.

I will not question the judgement of any faculty member or choreographer.

I will support my child's group, teachers, choreographers and resolve to allow the teachers to manage their dancers and choreography as they feel best benefits the entire team.

Because I am a role model for my child as well as the other dancers, my personal conduct at the studio, performances, competitions and other studio events must be above reproach and represents the highest standards of morality, teamwork and sportsmanship. Therefore, I pledge that:

I will exhibit exemplary behavior at the studio, performances and competitions for our dancers, other parents and spectators.

I will, always control my emotions and will be considerate of all dancers and parents' collective emotions.

I will not make disparaging remarks of any type regarding directors, teachers, choreographers, choreography placement, costumes, other parents, competition judges, other studios or publicly criticize them in the studio or course of any event.

As a parent of a Dance Works Academy student, I accept these rules and agree to conduct myself according to the principles and regulations of the Dance Works Academy Studio. I realize that my child or I may be removed from the studio for failure to abide by these rules.
